BROWN MACHINE WELCOMES NEW CONTINUOUS SALES RESPRESENTATIVE

Beaverton, MI – August 2004 - Jim Allen retired from Brown Machine on July 16th after 38 years of service. Jim hired in as a Mechanical Assembler in 1966 and held various positions as Machine Tooling / Tryout Process Technician, Service Technician, Marketing Project Engineer and Product Manager Spare Parts up to his most recent assignment in 1984 as Product Manager Continuous Equipment. We would like to congratulate Jim on a dedicated and successful career and offer him our best wishes for a long and healthy retirement.

Thank you Jim!

Jason Winans has been assigned the role of Manager of Continuous Thermoforming. Jason began his career at Brown in 1998 as a Service Technician and was assigned as a Project Manager in 2000. Jason was promoted to Product Manager Spare Parts in 2003 until this new assignment. Prior to joining Brown, Jason was an Avionics Technician in the United States Air Force. Jason's broad background provides him with the skill base needed to assist customers with their continuous equipment requirements. Please contact Jason at (989) 435-7741 x1208 or email at jason.winans@brown-machine.com.
